The Santa Fe Railroad company has purchased 380 acres of land two miles east of Phoenix and will erect on it one of the largest pumping plants in that section, with pumping power sufficient to water the entire section. It is the plan of the company to purchase a section of land in all for the experiment.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Lacy Greer of Concho Killed at the Stock Yards.

The Santa Fe stock yards west of town was the scene of a fatal accident in the early morning of Thanksgiving day. Lacy Greer, a well known citizen whose home was at Concho, came to Holbrook Wednesday with a bunch of horses to sell to George King, the horse buyer. The horses were put in the Santa Fe stock pens over night, and on Thursday morning Mr. Greer and Mr. King went to the corral to water the stock. While the two men were closing the double gates, weighing about 600 pounds each, Mr. King discovered that the section of the gate which Mr. Greer had hold of was falling, and called to him to get out of the way but he failed to do so, and the descending timbers struck him on the forehead, knocking him to ground and breaking his neck. Death was almost instantaneous.

Coroner F. J. Watron summoned a jury and an inquest was held on the body. A verdict was rendered to the effect that deceased came to his death through the negligence of the Santa Fe Railroad Company in not keeping the gate in proper repair.

The remains were brought to town, prepared for burial and sent to Concho in charge of E. J. Smith, accompanied by R. D. Greer of this place, who is a brother of the deceased. Wallace Riggs was sent ahead to break the sad news to the stricken family.

Mr. Greer leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his untimely death. He was about 33 years of age and well known in this section, having been raised here.

The Argus unites with his numerous friends and acquaintances in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.
